

Team News

Andreas Holzamer will join the Windisch Law Offices in July 2009. Previously Mr Holzamer worked as a trainee solicitor at ARQIS, a renowned law firm located in Munich, Germany and specialised in business law.

We place particular emphasis on providing excellent training to young lawyers – Windisch Law Offices have therefore been providing training placements to graduate lawyers from Austria and Germany since 2007.

“We’ve always found committed international trainee lawyers to be a great addition to our team. I’m delighted that Andreas Holzamer will be joining us, bringing additional expertise in tax, equity and corporate law,” says lawyer Dr. Bettina Windisch-Altieri who founded the independent Windisch Law Offices in 2007.

Windisch Law Offices specialises in business law and serves clientele from organisations across many industries, both on a national and an international level. Our key areas of expertise include corporate law and M&A, as well as company, media and entertainment law.
