

Team News at Windisch Law Offices

Silviya Yankova will join Windisch Law Offices in January 2010

Silviya Yankova will join the team of Windisch Law Offices in January 2010. "As a graduate of the University of Freiburg she already gained international work experience. Besides German and English Silviya Yankova is fluent in Russian and Bulgarian."

We place particular emphasis on providing excellent training to young lawyers – Windisch Law Offices have therefore been providing training placements to graduate lawyers from Austria and Germany since 2007.

„We've always found committed international trainee lawyers to be a great addition to our team. I'm looking forward that Silviya Yankova will be joining us, bringing additional expertise in european and international law as well as art and media law", says Dr. Bettina Windisch-Altieri who founded the independent Windisch Law Offices in 2007.

Windisch Law Offices specialises in business law and serves clientele from organisations across many industries, both on a national and an international level. Our key areas of expertise include corporate law and M&A, as well as company, media and entertainment law.
